

Jewelry Making

Join Teri for a fully interactive workshop designed to jump-start your creative process and get those wonderful juices flowing. Be prepared to make one-of-kind-jewelry piece(s) and learn techniques to create a look that is as unique as you.

Using techniques that date back centuries, you will learn the basic concepts of making jewelry from precious metal wire. Shaping the wire by hand using minimal tools without solder or glue.

Only the finest materials will be used including sterling silver, 14kgf or rose-gold-filled wire. Choose from more than 300 different kinds of beads, including Swarovski crystal, fresh water pearls, semi-precious and non-precious stones.

Make earrings, pendant, bracelet, ring or a complete set!

Prices vary depending on materials and project chosen. Earrings start at $35. Pendants start at $45.

Contact concierge or Teri directly at 719-229-7759 to schedule a workshop.

About the Artist

A Colorado Springs native, Teri Adams-Fjellman is a multi-discipline artist and teacher. Drawing from the beauty that surrounds our city, she combines techniques in the making of jewelry, silk painting, textile sculpture, embroidery and other mixed media. Her compositions all come together in contemporary, whimsical and ornamental designs.

"I feel truly blessed to be able to create my passion and even more blessed when I am able to lead someone on their path of creativity. I can win numerous awards, but nothing matches the experience when I see the excitement and pure joy that someone experiences after they have created their own unique piece of wearable art."
